[January 4? 1956]

Dearest Baby,

It is 1 p.m. and we have just finished dinner + Nate is taking off to see if he can spot the boys. We are waiting for them to show up.

Meals are fine and plentiful and I'll send some dirty clothes back with Nate this eve. Bugs are bad.

Here is a list of things we need.

- 1) Our two air mattresses. We are sending plastic ones back.
- 2) The pricker[?] for reverbero [a type of camp stove for cooking at high altitudes]
- 3) 3 shigras [a type of bag woven with different color thread] to hang up in our tree house to put things in
- 4) 1 Empty milk can to put candy in
- 5) Alcohol for reverbero

6. My sunglasses
7. Mosquito skin killer - insect repellent
8. More milk + lemonade
9. Old scraps of meat or fish bait

I love you very much. Give my love to the boys.

Ed.

Thanks for everything

10. Sun helmet, if around
