

Annandale,

Darjeeling,

India.

September 9th, 1957

Mrs James Elliot,
Missionary with Auca Indians,
Ecuador.

Dear Madame:

Recently, I came to read of the death of your husband and his friends in a most noble endeavor.

I am a Tibetan and a Buddhist; and I do feel a sturdy and unbounded admiration for the manly qualities of Mr. Elliot and his companions.

I give you and your friends greetings and wish you success in the work your husbands left for you to carry-on.

Yours Respectfully,
Sharab W. Tenduf La