

[Instrumental Intro Music]

00:12 Speaker 1: This is the Army Hour. Reporting first this week from Panama Canal Zone.

00:18 Speaker 2: In the background as moot evidence of what had happened. An airplane discarded of all fuselage broken and bent. A tree shack left of the winds to destroy. And a wooden cross marking the bodies of four people.

00:38 Speaker 1: And then a look in at our Army Guest House.

00:46 [Music] I'll never stop loving you Whatever else I may do.

01:03 Speaker 1: This is the Army Hour. In cooperation with the mutual network bringing you on the spot transcribed reports about the Army's far-flung operations and heard throughout the world. From Panama. Army helicopters help recover the bodies of missionaries massacred by Alca Indians in Ecuador. Music by the United States Army Field Band and chorus and our army guest house visitor, Specialist Bob Dini. This is the Army Hour.

[Music] This is the Army. This is the Army.

Speaker 1: Out of the night that covers me black as the pit from pole to pole, I thank whatever gods may be for my unwavering, unconquerable soul. The United States Army Field Band plays Invictus.
